

Make your mark

Have a look at the makers' marks displayed around the top of the walls. They were used to show which artist made each piece.

Have a go at making one for yourself.

Draw your makers' mark in this box.

Think about how you would like to represent yourself. Will you use a drawing, or maybe some of the letters from your name?